Section A: The Board, its composition and authority

1 Introduction

1.1 Purpose

1.1.1 This Board Charter (the "Charter") is the guiding document for the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Bank Kerjasama Rakyat Malaysia Berhad (the "Bank"), and is in line with Section 4 of the Bank Kerjasama Rakyat (Special Provisions) Act 1978, which empowers the Board to carry out the functions and powers and general administration of the affairs and business of the Bank.

1.2 Guiding principles of the Board Charter

1.2.1 This Charter should be read together with the relevant provisions in the following acts:

- (a) the Bank Kerjasama Rakyat (Special Provisions) Act 1978 ("Bank Rakyat Act");
- (b) the Development Financial Institutions Act 2002 ("DFI2002"); and
- (c) the Co-operative Societies Act 1993 ("Co-Op Act 1993").

1.2.2 This Charter shall further be read together with the relevant principles and standards set out in guidelines, circulars and directives issued by:

- (a) Bank Negara Malaysia ("BNM Guidelines");
- (b) the minister charged with the responsibility of finance ("MOF");
- (c) the minister charged with the responsibility for co-operative development (the "Minister"); and
- (d) the By-Laws of the Bank.

1.2.3 The Board has established a Board of Directors Policy (the "Board Policy"), which serves as guidance to the Board in effectively fulfilling their duties. This policy outlines the guiding principles and matters pertaining to Board organization, responsibilities, and relevant internal policies and procedures, including those outlined in this Board Charter.

1.2.4 When there is a conflict between the provisions of this Charter, regulatory and legislative provisions, and the Bank's policies and procedures in relation to the function of the Board (including its conduct), the acts mentioned above shall prevail.

1.2.5 Where paragraphs in this Charter make reference to provisions in the relevant act, or a principle in a corporate governance guide (e.g. Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance), this is indicated accordingly in italics.

2 Board composition and independence

2.1 Board size

2.1.1 The Board shall consist of a Chairman and not less than six (6) and not more than eleven (11) other members.

2.1.2 The Board shall periodically review and evaluate the size of the Board, with view to promote effective deliberation, encourage active participation of all Directors and to allow the work of the various Board Committees to be discharged without giving rise to an over-extension of Directors that are required to serve on multiple Board Committees.

2.1.3 The Board shall take into consideration the following when reviewing its size:

- (a) The evolving circumstances and needs of the Bank in terms of its size, market or geographical location;
- (b) The need to achieve an appropriate balance of Executive and Non-Executive Directors (including Independent Directors); and
- (c) Other factors such as, representation of the interests of certain members or groups of members, technical know-how or experience in the relevant industry sector, and the Board's diversity of professional experience, ethnicity, gender and age.

2.2 Board independence and composition

2.2.1 The Board shall comprise a majority of Independent Directors at all times.

2.2.2 The Board has adopted the definition of independence in accordance with the BNM Guidelines and criteria as outlined in Bank Rakyat's Board of Directors' Policy and Board Nomination and Appointment Framework.

2.2.3 The Board must determine whether an individual to be appointed as an independent director is independent in character and judgement, and free from associations or circumstances that may impair the exercise of his independent judgement. An individual must not be considered to be an independent director if he or any person linked to him—

- (a) has been an executive in the last two years;
- (b) is a substantial shareholder of the financial institution or any of its affiliates;
- (c) is a representative of the stakeholder Ministry of the DFI; or
- (d) has had a significant business or other contractual relationship with the financial institution or any of its affiliates within the last two years.

2.2.4 The Chairman of the Board must not be an executive and must not have served as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Bank in the past five years.

2.2.5 Subject to the prevailing practice of Bank Rakyat, there shall be no Executive Director within the Board of Directors. However, if deemed necessary by any regulation or law, or if the Board decides to appoint an Executive Director at any time, the Board must not have more than one (1) Executive Director to promote effective independent oversight by the Board.

2.3 Board mix of skills, experience and competencies

2.3.1 The Board shall comprise of Directors who as a group demonstrate a mixture of core competencies and knowledge of banking operations, of the Bank's target market or sector and the socio-economic environment.

2.3.2 Core competencies refer to knowledge in regard to the following disciplines:

- (a) Finance;
- (b) Accounting;

- (c) Banking;
- (d) Risk management;
- (e) Legal;
- (f) Business management,
- (g) Socio-economy;
- (h) Public administration;
- (i) Information technology; and
- (j) Investment management.

- 2.3.3 At minimum, three (3) Directors, excluding for executive directors, must possess finance related or accounting experience. A Board member who is qualified in finance-related disciplines should have acquired a minimum of five years working experience at a senior management level in the discipline of banking, insurance, takaful, or investment.
- 2.3.4 All Directors should possess a sound level of knowledge of provisions of acts relevant to the Bank, and relevant BNM Guidelines on the functions, powers, duties, responsibilities, restrictions and limitations of the Bank, the Board and individual Directors.
- 2.3.5 The Board, with the assistance of the Board Nomination and Remuneration Committee, shall establish, document, and periodically assess the criteria and skills necessary for its members, both individually and as a group. These criteria and skills should align with the fit and proper requirements and the specific market or business knowledge needed for effective Board performance. This assessment should also consider experience and knowledge in development finance on the Board. It is important that the criteria and skill sets be reviewed regularly by the Board to encourage diversity and ensure alignment with the mandate, strategic direction and emerging challenges faced by the Bank. The Board must also take into account supervisory concerns highlighted by the BNM that require specific expertise on the Board.

2.4 Board diversity

- 2.4.1 The Board shall strive to promote and welcome diversity and gender mix in its composition.

3 Authority of the Board

- 3.1 In carrying out its functions, the Board shall have the authority to:
- (a) Investigate any activity or matter within its Board Charter;
 - (b) Acquire the resources necessary for it to perform its duties;
 - (c) Have full and unrestricted access to the information, records, properties and personnel of the Bank;
 - (d) Seek relevant internal and external independent professional advice as it deems necessary at the expense of the Bank, in furtherance of their service as Directors; and
 - (e) Meet exclusively among the members, wherever deemed necessary.
- 3.2 Where independent professional or other advice is considered necessary for the discharge of Board Committees and Directors' duties to the Bank, such proposal for independent professional or other advice shall be subject to the approval of the Board.

4 Roles and responsibilities of the Board

4.1 Roles of the Board

- 4.1.1 The Board members have a fiduciary duty to act in the best interests of the Bank's co-operative members and stakeholders. All Directors must act with integrity, lead by example, keep abreast of his responsibilities as a director and of the conduct business activities and development of the Bank.

13.1 The roles of the Chairman and CEO shall be distinct and separate with a clear division of responsibilities of the Chairman and the CEO. The Chairman of the Board should not have an executive position or responsibility in the Bank, including its subsidiaries.

13.2 By having a non-executive position, the Chairman assumes an important role in encouraging a healthy debate on critical issues and brings to the Board the required level of independence and professional scepticism.

13.3 The CEO is entrusted with the overall management and control of the operational aspects of the Bank's business.

Section C: Board processes

14 Appointment, re-appointment and removal of directors

14.1 The appointment, reappointment, and removal of directors shall be conducted in accordance with the Bank's Board Nomination and Appointment Framework and Board of Director Policy, which has adopted BNM's Fit and Proper criteria and a clear and transparent nomination and appointment process.

14.2 Each Director must be assessed against the requirements set out in the BNM CGPD, the fit and proper requirements, and the disqualification factors under Section 7 of the DFIA, at least annually, and/or as and when the Board becomes aware of information that may materially compromise the director's fitness and propriety, or any circumstance that suggests that the director is ineffective, errant or otherwise unsuited to carry out his/her responsibilities.

15 Limitation on External Commitment

15.1 Each Director must not hold more than five (5) directorships in listed companies and fifteen (15) directorships in non-public listed companies. This is to ensure that his/her competing time commitment will not impair his/her ability to discharge his/her duties effectively.

15.2 If a Director holds position on the Board of entities within the same Group, their directorship shall be considered as one directorship.

16 Performance and assessment

16.1 On an annual basis, the Board shall evaluate the effectiveness of the Board (BEE exercise) and in meeting the requirements of its Board Charter, including the assessment on the Board as a whole, the Board Committees, and of individual Directors.

16.2 The Board shall periodically engage independent experts to conduct the BEE exercise to assist in and lend objectivity to these exercises.

- 16.3 The Board Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall further undertake the assessment on the independence of the Bank's Independent Directors, upon admission, annually and as and when there are changes in regard to the interest or relationship of its Directors.

17 Independence of Directors

- 17.1 The Board has adopted the definition of independence setting out the interests and relationships to be considered by the Board in assessing the independence of each Director. The criteria for assessing independence are outlined in the Board Nomination and Appointment Framework.
- 17.2 The Board, with the assistance of the Board Nomination and Remuneration Committee shall undertake the assessment on the independence of the Bank's Independent Directors, upon admission, annually and as and when there are changes in regard to the interest or relationship of its Directors.

18 Tenure of Directors

- 18.1 The appointment of the Chairman and other Director shall be for period not exceeding two (2) years and any such appointee shall be eligible for reappointment. This is supported by the annual assessment of the Director's performance.
- 18.2 The tenure for Independent Directors should not exceed nine (9) years, except under exceptional circumstances or as part of transitional arrangements towards full implementation of the succession plans of the Bank.

19 Remuneration of Directors

- 19.1 In accordance with Subsection 2(3) of Bank Rakyat Act, the remuneration and allowances of the Directors of the Bank, including Chairman and the CEO, shall be determined by the Minister with the concurrence from the Minister of Finance ("MOF").
- 19.2 Notwithstanding the above, it is the responsibility of the Board Nomination and Remuneration Committee to develop and submit to the Board for its deliberation and recommendation, a fair and equitable remuneration package for the Directors.

20 Training and development for Directors

- 20.1 Induction programme for newly-appointed Directors
- 20.1.1 Newly appointed Directors are to attend an induction programme where they will be briefed by MANCO personnel on the organisational structure of the Bank, the functions, operations and areas of responsibilities of the various divisions of the Bank. Such induction is to take place within three months of the Director's appointment.
- 20.1.2 Details on the induction process are stipulated in the Board Nomination and Appointment Framework.
- 20.2 On-going training and development
- 20.2.1 The Board shall ensure sufficient resources towards the training and development needs of the Directors.

- 20.2.2 The Board shall evaluate, on a continuous basis, the training needs of its Directors and identify the areas of training which would benefit the Board in meeting the challenges of leading the Bank.
- 20.2.3 Results from the Board and Board Committee Assessments, namely the Directors' skill sets assessment, shall provide indicators on the training needs of the Directors. Identified training needs shall be acted upon (e.g. through the Director attending structured training courses) to further equip that Director with the knowledge and skills necessary to fulfil his/her responsibilities.
- 20.2.4 Details on the training and development process are in the Board Education Programme in the Board Nomination and Appointment Framework.
